

Nathan Seaway

925-278-4010, nseaway@ucsb.edu

Santa Barbara, CA

Education:

University of California, Santa Barbara (UCSB)

Expected Graduation: September 2025

Bachelor of Science (B.S.), Environmental Studies, Minor in French

Cumulative GPA 3.84, Major GPA: 3.89

Relevant coursework: Restoration Ecology, Ecosystem Biodiversity, Soil Science, Environmental Law, Environmental Planning, Conservation Biology, Data Science & Env Applications

Experience:

Environmental Field Research Intern

March 2024 -September 2024, March 2025-Present

UCSB Cheadle Center for Biodiversity & Ecological Restoration, Santa Barbara

- Independently managed and organized field surveys, collecting phenological data of coastal sage scrub plants
- Performed field inspections and ecological assessments aligned with project goals
- Documented and organized data for project tracking and reporting
- Collected, analyzed, and edited data related to this project using Excel

Restoration Ecology & Environmental Monitoring Intern

September 2023 -March 2024

UCSB Cheadle Center for Biodiversity & Ecological Restoration, Santa Barbara

- Worked as part of a team in executing restoration strategies in various ecosystem types including coastal sage scrub, wetlands, and oak grasslands
- Used survey techniques to assess project goals, including quadrat and photography
- Gained skills in invasive species management techniques, site restoration, plant propagation, seed collection, and plant identification

Supervisor/ Coordinator

August 2024 -Present

UCSB Department of Recreation, Aquatics, Santa Barbara

- Managed and organized a staff of more than forty employees in aquatics programming
- Oversaw customer service and communications, conducted interviews, and managing scheduling
- Developed and implemented staff professional development programs

Skills:

Languages: French (written fluency, oral proficiency)

Software: Microsoft Excel, R/RStudio, Microsoft Suite

Reporting & Compliance: Field inspections, ecological data analysis, technical documentation

Certifications: CPR and First Aid (American Red Cross)

